ORDER

AND NOW, this 5th day of June 2024, upon consideration of plaintiff Jose Lebron's motion to proceed in forma pauperis (DI 1), his Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement (DI 3), and his pro se Complaint (DI 2), it is ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (DI 1) is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.
2. Jose Lebron, #NNY-7163, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case. The Court directs the Superintendent of SCI Forest or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Mr. Lebron's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Mr. Lebron's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Superintendent or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Mr. Lebron's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Superintendent or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Mr. Lebron's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order to the Superintendent of SCI Forest.

4. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.

5. The Complaint is DISMISSED IN PART WITH PREJUDICE and DISMISSED IN PART WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum, as follows:

a. The official capacity claims are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

b. The balance of the Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

6. Mr. Lebron may file an amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Mr. Lebron's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his amended complaint, Mr. Lebron should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

7. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Mr. Lebron a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Mr. Lebron may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

8. If Mr. Lebron does not wish to amend his complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled “Notice to Stand on Complaint,” and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) (“If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate.” (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))).

9. If Mr. Lebron fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Mr. Lebron intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff’s intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

MURPHY, J.
